

Online Stop Payment Disclosure

By submitting a Stop Payment through Skagit Online Banking, I agree to hold the Bank harmless for all expenses and costs incurred by the Bank on account of refusing payment of the item. I also agree that if the Bank mistakenly pays the item that the Bank will not be liable for any consequential damages, including any damages for returning other checks for insufficient funds. If this check/item has been presented for payment at Skagit Bank, prior to this stop payment being accepted, the stop payment is null and void and the stop payment fee will be refunded. Finally, I agree that the maximum liability of the Bank for failure to stop payment on this item will not exceed the amount of the item.

* The exact amount of the check or ACH item is required in order for the item to be successfully stopped.